FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANNE M. BOOMER NAMED INTERIM ADMINISTRATIVE COUNSEL OF MICHIGAN SUPREME COURT

LANSING, MI, March 6, 2006 – Attorney Anne M. Boomer, a former policy advisor to the Michigan Senate, has been named the interim Administrative Counsel to the Michigan Supreme Court, the Court announced today.

As Administrative Counsel, Boomer will advise the Supreme Court on matters ranging from state court rule changes to the Court's own internal operating procedures. She will also work closely with the State Court Administrative Office (SCAO), the Court's administrative agency.

Boomer first joined SCAO in 2004, where she initially served as Family Division Analyst and then as Legal Affairs Analyst. She previously served as Policy Advisor for the Family and Children's Committee of the Michigan Senate, where her work included revamping the state Adoption Code and legislation governing the Friend of the Court system. Boomer also participated in the work of the Binsfeld Commission, which focused on child abuse and neglect, and helped draft legislation recommended by the commission.

From 1989 to 1992, Boomer was an associate in the litigation department of the Cross Wrock law firm in Detroit. She was a writer and publications specialist for the Communications Office of the Michigan Senate from 1983 to 1987.

Boomer graduated cum laude in 1984 from Michigan State University, where she majored in English. She received her law degree from Wayne State University Law School in 1990.

Boomer, her husband Carel Allen, and their three children reside in Ann Arbor.
